Meet Your Judge Celia Smith (Sidlyn)

A Lighthearted Look at Celia's Life in Poms

Having seen photos of Poms and fallen in love with the Breed, I was lucky enough to get my first Pom in approx. '71 from the Amcross Kennel, she was called Amcross Jessica and was a pet only ...BUT....Neighbours and Friends said”Oh, you’ve got a Bitch, you should let her have Puppies.”

I knew nothing, completely ignorant, so, to sum it up a Pedigree was a piece of paper with names on it, and the only thing I knew about breeding was that I had two children (Not exactly doggy orientated, was it??) However I sallied forth back to Amcross (I will never be able to thank the late Deirdrie and M.C. enough for all their help and guidance....indeed M.C. is now one of my oldest and dearest friends) and Jessica was mated, producing a lovely orange singleton.....no indication of all the problems and pitfalls which we know so well! Jess had three more litters and we kept one of each, and I was hooked!!

We travelled miles to go to the Exemption Shows of the day (Any rosette would do) and gradually progressed up the ranks, no question of buying in etc. We made slow and painful progress.....I made up my first champion in 1990 and gave my first set of C.C.s at Bournemouth in 1995, and, amongst others am proud to say that I have judged the S.O.E. Pom Club, the Pomeranian Club(2004), the Pom Club of South Wales and now for the Scottish Pom Club....

Thank You so much.
