JUDGES PROFILE

JACKIE WYETH

There has never been a time when Jackie hasn't shared her life with dogs but it wasn't until the late 1990's that she was able to realise her ambition to own and show Cockers. Her first show dog was a black & tan boy who qualified at the first ever Championship Show she entered in. He then gained his Stud Book number at Crufts and from there Jackie has never looked back.

Jackie's first invitation to judge came from The Northern Spaniel Club, which she was honoured to accept and further appointments followed. The first breed show Jackie was The Parti-Coloured Cocker Spaniel Club and is now looking forward to The East of Scotland Cocker Spaniel Club show where she is sure she will meet some lovely dogs (and people of course).
